Stanford Spa Lagoon

The beauty industry has had a tough time during the recession but Stanford Spa Lagoon has bucked the trend showing growth in both turnover and net profit over the last five years. It has invested in the latest treatments such as permanent makeup while at the same time focusing on marketing its core products to existing and new customers. As we move towards more buoyant economic times the business is well positioned to further expand and maintain the upward growth curve.

Sir Richard Branson, Virgin

www.virgin.com

Sir Richard's position as one of the UK's, and indeed the world's, most successful and highest profile entrepreneurs needs no introduction. His business acumen coupled with a natural ability to promote himself and his organisation are second to none. An inspirational figure, Sir Richard has a rare ability to touch hearts and minds which spans any generation while effortlessly remaining approachable and down to earth. There is perhaps no one more deserving of Crème de la Crème status.
